Hello THSC Friend,

Maybe you've been back to school for a month or maybe you're just starting back this month. There are lots of ways to celebrate fall with your family and say goodbye to summer!

Just like in The Apple Pie Tree or Apple Picking Time storybooks, you can go with your family to a pick-your-own orchard near you and share a new experience. There are places to pick pumpkins, berries, and even apples in Texas! Which orchard is nearest you?

This beautiful fall "to do" list printable - and accompanying resources - will inspire you to get moving and make memories with your kids.

Don't forget to head to the library to find some vivid fall picture books to help set the mood. This resource even has a handy check off list.

Happy September,

Create a Safe Internet Environment in Your Homeschool

A basic requirement for today's homeschool environments is the ability to connect to the internet. Whether we're accessing science labs, doing research, engaging with other online homeschool communities, it's safe to say that without the internet, homeschooling would look very different.

However, do you know how to take control of your home internet and create family-friendly environments for your kids and anyone using the internet at your home?

These advanced tips from Tony (internet safety expert and founder of CleanBrowsing) might surprise you!

THSC 26th Annual Gala and Fundraiser

Stretching across 500 acres of stunning natural surroundings, The Woodlands Resort is the perfect destination for a getaway. Complete with golf, a spa, a waterpark and a lazy river, the THSC Gala weekend will be one you're sure to remember ... as if you needed an extra excuse to celebrate homeschooling!

Join us on October 9, 2021, at 7:00 p.m. at The Woodlands Resort for a night to come together and celebrate all that the homeschooling community has accomplished in this landmark year!

Here are all the details you need to know!

“Then [Jesus] said to his disciples, “The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest.”

-Matthew 9:37-38
